

Food Service

Training Provides:

-A food service kitchen and serving area with training space relative to the service of both hot and cold foods in a cafeteria setting.

-Individual training by the Food Service Instructor which would allow for training in any one or a combination of the following:

1. Cashiering
2. Food Service
3. Salad Preparation
4. Dish and / or pot washing
5. Grill preparation
6. Ordering and receiving
7. Cafeteria Maintenance

If you are interested in more information about the Vocational Rehabilitation program at PARC, please contact Lillian Earle, Administrative Program Coordinator for the Vocational Department at 845-225-5650

Ext. 131

PARC

Partner. Achieve. Reach. Connect.

Exceptional Opportunities for People with Disabilities

Vocational Rehabilitation Department

The Vocational Rehabilitation

Department provides individuals with developmental disabilities, traumatic brain injury, physical and mental health related disabilities, opportunities to enhance their skills and assists them in reaching their fullest potential.

Vocational Employment Service Coordination within the PARC Adult Training Center which provides:

- Individual counseling
- Individualized goals
- Pre-Vocational Services
- Work adjustment Training
- Formal and Situational evaluations and assessments
- Groups co led with a clinical Rehab. Counselor
- Skills Training
- Support at Satellite Workshop locations

Putnam Industries / Workshop Environment

Provides:

- Simulated competitive work environment with sub contracts solicited from industry at large, which range from simplistic to moderately complex bench assembly tasks.
- Role modeling of desired work skills and work habits by workshop supervisors.

Supported Employment, funded initially through

VESID, provides:

- assessment/identification of skills, interests and schedule
- training in resume preparation (if applicable) and applications
- Job development and job search assistance
- Interview training
- Travel training
- Job placement
- Job coach training on and off the job site
- Long term support on and off the job site